Misteria Paschalia

13 – 20 April 2025

Misteria Paschalia is one of the most important early music festivals in Europe, organized by KBF since 2004 during Holy Week.

Eight days, ten exceptional locations, and dozens of artistic events in Kraków, Tyniec, and Wieliczka from April 13 to 20, 2025 – this is what the 22nd edition of the Misteria Paschalia Festival looks like. As one of Europe's most significant early music festivals, it offers a unique journey through the sounds of past centuries. Under the artistic direction of Vincent Dumestre, audiences will experience a rich program featuring both renowned masterpieces and rediscovered works.

This year's edition will bring together over 100 artists from several European countries, offering not only mesmerizing concerts but also events that deepen the understanding of early music and historical instruments. All performances will take place in Kraków's most beautiful venues, merging the city's historical heritage with world-class musical interpretations.

Concert: W.A. Mozart's Requiem

1 April 2025

Krakow Opera, Lubicz 48

The Requiem is a Mass for the dead (Missa pro defunctis), traditionally sung on All Souls' Day and during funeral ceremonies. Its name comes from the first words of the introit Requiem aeternam ("Eternal rest").

Mozart's Requiem in D-minor is the most famous composition of its kind. Written in the final months of the composer's life, its completion was interrupted by his untimely death in 1791. The last section Mozart worked on was the Lacrimosa from the Dies irae sequence. The piece was later completed by four composers from his inner circle, with Franz Xaver Süssmayr making the most significant contribution.

Kortez Wiosna'25[Spring'25]

2 April 2025, 8.00 PM

ICE Kraków Congress Centre, Konopnicka 17

"I love this moment when it's just like now outside—getting dark earlier, waking up and stepping into the fog for a smoke.

The holidays are coming, maybe some snow will fall. Lots of sad days with little sparks in between. Autumn. Slowly moving toward spring. I'm dropping the dates for the spring tour. Maybe something new will come, maybe not. For now, I stay in my fog."*

Irena Santor - 90th Birthday Jubilee Concert

5 April 2025 PM

ICE Kraków Congress Centre, Konopnicka 17

Irena Santor – the undisputed First Lady of Polish Song, beloved by generations of listeners, celebrates her 90th birthday this year. To mark this special occasion, the artist is embarking on a unique Jubilee Concert Tour across the most beautiful concert halls in Poland.

During the anniversary concerts, you will hear unforgettable hits as well as new songs that have already won the audience's approval. The musical journey will be complemented by stories and memories shared by Irena Santor, who will be participating in all the concerts. The event's musical setting will be provided by the 10-member vocal group Polyphonics along with an instrumental ensemble, all under the artistic direction of Paweł Głowiński.

The greatest dream of the Polish stage's biggest star is for her music to continue to live on. As once, Poland's largest concert halls will be filled with tender sounds, combined with nostalgia and sincere emotions, from which the artist's most wonderful compositions were born.

11th Emaus Tree Competition

5 April 2025 PM

Szczepański Square / Hipolitów Tenement House

The Emaus tree has become a recognizable symbol of Easter in Kraków, also becoming one of the key elements of the city's spring decorations.

This year, the post-competition exhibition will be hosted in the exhibition halls on the first floor of the Hipolitów Tenement House. In these bourgeois interiors, you will find this year's competition entries, prepared by their creators in six categories: children's trees, youth trees, adult trees, family trees (created by children's groups), adult group trees, and traditional trees.

While admiring the craftsmanship of the authors and searching for additional hidden meanings in these Kraków symbols of rebirth and the hope for the ever-returning spring, visitors will also have the opportunity to express their opinions and choose the most beautiful entry.

Famous Krakow Pilgrimages – Tradition and Modernity

10 April 2025, 5:00 PM

Centre for the Interpretation of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Kraków, Szpitalna 21 Street

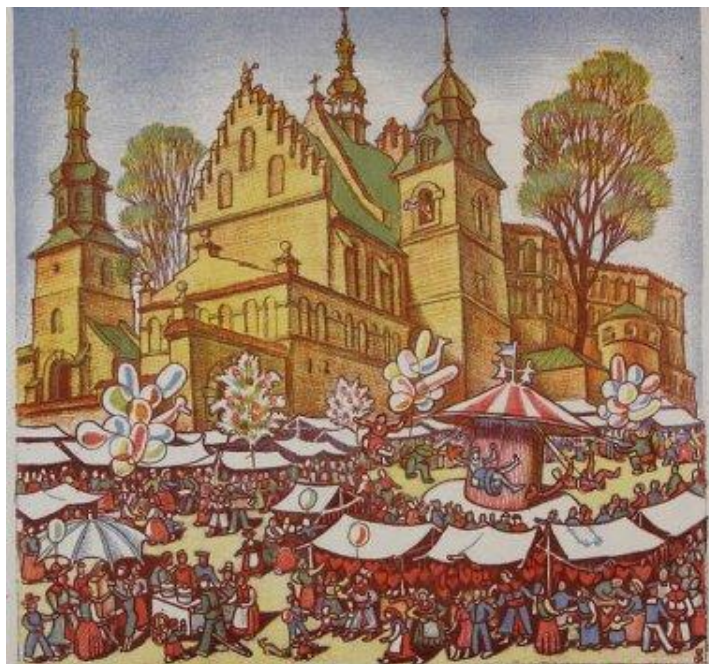

Krakow – at the crossroads of cultures and religions.

Pilgrimages, commonly referred to as annual parish feasts on the feast day of the local church's patron saint, during which one can obtain an indulgence (the remission of temporal punishment for sins), are also festivals and fairs held in the vicinity of churches. Using a few examples of Krakow's parish pilgrimages, this presentation will attempt to answer questions such as: What changes have occurred over the centuries that led to the gradual incorporation of secular elements into strictly religious celebrations, eventually resulting in the complete dominance of festive and commercial aspects? What distinguished the Krakow spring pilgrimages in the past, and what did they mean for the residents of Krakow and its surroundings? What happened to the most famous ones, such as Emauzy and Rękawka? To what extent is their contemporary form rooted in Krakow's traditions?

Rękawka Festival

22 April 2025, 11.30 AM – 6.00 PM

Kopiec Krakusa

A thousand-year-old tradition will come to life once again on the second day of Easter. The early medieval settlement will be filled with activity and colorful characters, Slavic rituals, and a great battle – all this awaits adventure-seeking guests at the Traditional Święto Rękawki at Kopiec Krakusa. The event will take place on 22nd April 2025, from 11:30 to 18:00. The theme of this year's festival – "Chrobry takes over Kraków" – refers to the celebration of the Millennium of the Polish Kingdom in 2025.

At the foot of Kopiec Krakusa, visitors will be transported back in time by a millennium and experience what life was like in an early medieval settlement, which was abundant around the city. The spirits of the past will come to life in thematic villages and nearby groves of the mound. You will be able to see traditional crafts, period costumes, and medieval rituals performed to celebrate the arrival of spring.

Nowohuckie Cultural Center, Jana Pawła II 232

Krzysztof Cugowski, legendary rock musician, co-founder of Budka Suflera, and accomplished solo artist, has just embarked on one of the most significant periods of his career. He is celebrating a year filled with concerts and musical events marking the 55th anniversary of his artistic journey. He also plans to release a new album, accompanied by the exceptional musicians of the Zespół Mistrzów (Master's Band).

Since 2017, the artist has been conquering Polish stages alongside this remarkable band, featuring top-class instrumentalists: Jacek Królik on guitar, Cezary Konrad on drums, Robert Kubiszyn on bass, and Tomasz Kałwak on keyboards. They have performed hundreds of concerts together, both on Polish and international stages.

Kwiat Jabłoni

26 April 2025, 8.00 PM

Tauron Arena, Stanisława Lema 7

Kwiat Jabłoni, one of the most popular bands of the younger generation, has been captivating audiences for years with its unique approach to music – full of naturalness, integration with the listeners, and shared enjoyment under the stage.

As part of the Turnus Tour, an inseparable element will be the theme of travel. The musicians, along with the audience, will embark on a journey to important places – both those connected with nature and those that are yet to appear on the map.
